It's Moving Day!

Hi Friends,

Its moving day, the Milkmaid Society is ready to move over to our new home! The Milkmaid Society will now be hosted on a new platform called Kajabi. Kajabi is a very user friendly platform and its amazing over there! I have been hard at work moving all of our content over to this new platform and it is almost all there!

Here's Everything You Need To Know

Step 1
I have manually cancelled your subscriptions on the existing site. This means they will not renew! The old site will remain around for another month or so, but your subscriptions will not be renewing.

Step 2
You have to re-subscribe on the new platform, but don't worry, you won't be paying any extra money!

This is where it gets a little confusing and if you need any help at all, I am here to support you. You can email me (cheesefromscratch@outlook.com) or text me (1 250 983 8071) and I will help you figure it out. Choose the option that best suits you below. There are 4 options below and you only have to read the option that applies to you;

- Monthly Paying Member (USA)
- Monthly Paying Member (Canada)
- Yearly Paying Member (With a note for Canadians)
- No longer a member but wants to move with us

Please note, the checkout automatically populates to yearly, but if you would like to remain a monthly member, just click the monthly option on the top of the checkout.*

Monthly Paying Members USA: If you are a monthly paying subscriber the coupon codes you need are down below. Click on the one that describes you and sign up. Discounts of 1 month free will automatically be applied at checkout. You will have to enter your payment details, but will be charged $0 for this month. Next month your subscription will renew at the regular rate. If you would rather pay yearly or switch to VIP from Basic or vise versa, this is a great time to do so. Just click the link that you want.

Monthly VIP Members (USA)

Monthly Basic Members (USA)

Monthly Paying Members (Canada): Prices are in USA dollars but the Canada discount applies to make the dollar similar to Canadian prices. This is a feature that I am doing away with, but as active members I want to make sure you continue to have this discount. It does make it a little more difficult. You can use the links below to get a recurring 25% off your order each month. I have refunded your order for this month (you should see it come back on your card in the next few days) and so you will end up paying at checkout. If you have any questions, just reach out.

Yearly Paying Members: The best way I can think to transfer you over is to give you one free year. By clicking on the coupon codes below one free year will automatically be applied to your account and you will be charged $0 today. You will still have to enter your payment details, but it won't renew until this time next year.

Unfortunately, this is the only way I can transfer us over and I know some of you get more freebies than others depending on when you renew. No one is being charged more though, and thats the main thing. If you get a good deal, think of it like winning the Milkmaid Society lottery.

If you are a Canadian Yearly Subscriber, If this applies to you, you will see an individual email sent to you this afternoon. There are several options for moving with your Canadian discount and I just want to know what option will work the best for you.

If you are an old member, and you are still on this email list (Sorry!). First off, you will finally be unsubscribed from this email list (Yay! I hope you have been enjoying them though) and secondly, as past members I want to provide an option for you to move with us as well. If you would like to rejoin (with a discount code), here are the links;

What Happens When You Transfer Over

Once you have gone through the checkout process there are a few things to watch for.

1. First off it will have your create a password for your account. Create this password and login.

2. When you login you will be on a page called “my classes” this is where all of the content for the Milkmaid Society is located. You can browse it or you can check out the Milkmaid Society Home page in the top menu. This is the hub of the Milkmaid Society and is a place for you to connect with other Milkmaids. The Milkmaid Society map is not going to be moved over, so this is replacing the map and should be a place that helps you connect with each other.

3. I will be sending you emails over the next 4 days. The first one will be sent immediately after checkout and it contains everything you need to know to get started including a video that takes you through how to use the site. I highly recommend checking this video out, as it can make using the site a lot easier.

Early Bird Draw If You Move Before May 1st

On May 1st I will be opening up the Milkmaid Society to new members and ideally I would like to have everyone moved over before this time frame so that I can support everyone as much as they need. To entice you to move early I am having 2 early bird draws. The first one will be on Thursday April 23rd 2026 and will be for a $100 gift card to a local store of your choice (as long as I can buy it online), and the second one will be on Thursday April 30th 2026 and will be for a new book of your choice.

If you sign up before April 23rd you will be entered for both draws! This is my way of saying thank you to you all for supporting this move!

For Those That Are Not Wanting To Move

I hope that everyone is excited to move, but if you are not, I understand and I am very sorry for the inconvenience!

The new site is going to be 100 times more user friendly and easier for me to create the content you need to learn as a Milkmaid. If this is not something you are wanting, I completely understand and I am here to support you.

Shoot me an email and I can issue refunds for the remainder of your membership, or I can even give you a tour of the new site so you can see if it is something that you would like to move over to. I'm here to support you in whatever way you need!
